

JW STEAKHOUSE

Bourbon Barrel Aged Old Fashioned $7

We've recreated this gentlemen's cocktail by using classic agents like gentian root and cinchona bark along with burnt sugar, spices and a bit of orange peel. Aged in Willett bourbon barrels to allow flavors to come together and ramp up the intensity. Mixed with house Bourbon.

Tom Collins $7

Not your grandma's Tom Collins. A refreshing Collins with elderflower and citrus notes. Mixed with Vodka or Gin.

South of the Border $7

Dried Mexican chillies, cocoa nibs and spices, sweetened with raisins and aged with cocoa husks from French Broad Chocolates. Mixed with Mezcal Tequila.

New Orleans Sazerac $10

Willett Rye Bourbon with our old fashion rouge is strong and bittersweet packed with licorice and spices. Fennel and gentian root imply flavors of absinthe and bitters. Aged in Willett Rye Whiskey barrels.

Charred Grapefruit Tonic $7

Lime and lemon juice with cinchona bark, charred grapefruit skins with a bit of Bulls Bay sea salt pulling caramel notes. Mixed with Gin or vodka.

Smoked Honey Whiskey Sour $7

Honey smoked over bourbon barrel staves Bitter orange and lemon peel make for a slightly tart and smokey cocktail. Mixed with house bourbon.

Smokey Honey Margarita $7
